Par-Baked Crust

Unlike most pizza crusts, KB Pizza par-baked crusts are handmade. Our lengthy aging process ensures a consistent taste and texture.

The two sides can be easily recognized, even by the most inexperienced pizza maker. Crevices are evident on the rough bottom while the topping side is smooth.

KB Pizza par-baked crusts are shipped ready to use. The product requires minimal skilled training and is adaptable to various storage environments ranging from freezer to refrigerated, and even room temperature.

Choose any of the following storage suggestions to maintain the superior quality of our handmade par-baked crusts.
